

235 decio hall

september 20th-21st

employing INTERDISCIPLINARITY

early modern legacies | future challenges

plenary lectures

Fri 12:30-1:30

To be determined

Robert Frodeman

Prof. of Philosophy, University of North Texas
Coeditor of The Oxford Handbook for Interdisciplinarity

Sa 10:45-11:45

Adventures in Interdisciplinary Travels

Edward Muir

Prof. of History and Italian, Northwestern University Founding editor of Harvard UP series I Tatti Italian Renaissance History

conference panels

Fri 1:45-3:00 | Shakespeare sans Interdisciplinarity? Interdisciplinarity sans Shakespeare?

Fri 4:45-6:00 | Early Modern Judaism: Interdisciplinary and Interreligious Approaches

Sa 9:15-10:30 | Italian Studies and the Origins of Interdisciplinarity

Sa 2:30-3:45 | Phenomenologies of Intimacy: Gender and Disciplines organized by the Early Modern Circle

sponsored by

Center for Italian Studies

Crown-Minow Endowment for Jewish Studies

Department of Film, Theater, and Television

Department of History and Philosophy of Science

Department of History

Department of English

Early Modern Seminar

English Graduate Student Association

Hesburgh Library Rare Books and Special Collections

Medieval Institute

Nanovic Institute for European Studies

Navari Family Center for Digital Scholarship

Office of Digital Learning

Program of Gender Studies

& Endowed Chairs

Steve Fallon, Peter Holland,

& Laura L. Knoppers

FOR REGISTRATION AND CONFERENCE DETAILS
<http://sites.nd.edu/interdisciplinarity-conference/>