The Bologna Consortial Studies Program

• Live in apartments, with Italian university students: full immersion!

• Take courses and exams at the University of Bologna, with Italian university students.

• All courses, taught in Italian, by University of Bologna faculty.

• On-site consortium staff provides student support and orientation.

• The University of Bologna is Europe's oldest university (11th century), and Italy's top-ranked.

• Bologna, in north-central Italy, is an elegant, wealthy, beautiful, and ancient university city of 500,000.

• Easy train access to Milan, Venice, Florence, and Rome.

• ND can send at least two, and as many as a dozen or more, qualified students each year.

• An ND-facilitated program (tuition, transcript, credit transfer handled through ND).

• Must have at least 4 (preferably 5) semesters of Italian by end of sophomore year.

• ND's intensive courses (10110, 20111 and 20215) are an ideal head start (4 semesters in only 2 or 3)!

Notre Dame's opportunity for full-immersion study in Italy!

Full-year or half-year program, normally junior year. Semester-long program is now offered in both the fall and spring semesters!

Notre Dame is an Associate Member of the Bologna Consortial Studies Program (BCSP), a consortium of eight member universities (Indiana, Chicago, Illinois, Minnesota, North Carolina, Northwestern, UPenn and Wisconsin) and six associate members (Columbia, Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Cornell, Mt. Holyoke, Notre Dame).

Apply: through ND's International Studies; Deadline: November 1, 2020 11:59 PM (EDT) for the following year.

• Information: through ND's OIS website; or www.bcsp.unibo.it; or contact David Younger (dyounger@nd.edu).