

The Center for Italian Studies Presents

The Fifth Annual Ravarino Lecture

Nel Mezzo del Cammin: Finding a 'Spiritual' Dante in American Religious Culture

Peter S. Hawkins

*Professor Emeritus of Religion and Literature
Yale Divinity School
Yale University*

Friday, April 9
12:30 - 2:00 pm EDT
via Zoom (open to the public)

Find out more and register here: <https://italianstudies.nd.edu/news-events/events/2021/04/09/fifth-annual-ravarino-lecture-peter-hawkins-yale-dante-in-america/>

Center for Italian Studies
Devers Family Program in Dante Studies

Each year, thanks to the Albert J. and Helen M. Ravarino Family Endowment for Excellence, the Center for Italian Studies sponsors a public lecture by a distinguished scholar of Italian Studies. In 2021, in collaboration with the Devers Family Program in Dante Studies, the Ravarino Lecture is linked to the "Dante in America" series in commemoration of the 700th anniversary of Dante's death.